

PHILIP LIPTON

liptonpj@cofc.edu · 843 478 3414 · www.philiplipton.com

EXPERIENCE

2018 – PRESENT

CLARINET PROFESSOR, COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON

Prepare students for juries and recitals. Adapt new teaching styles and formats to accommodate for Covid-19 distancing requirements. Perform at faculty recitals.

2015 – PRESENT

CLARINET TEACHER, CHARLESTON ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Teach students from beginning-pre-college levels. Collaborate with CAM faculty in Rush Hour Concert Series.

EDUCATION

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

MASTER OF MUSIC, JACOB'S SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Artistic Excellence Fellowship recipient.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH FLORIDA

BACHELOR OF MUSIC

Summa Cum Laude honors, Music Scholar of the Year recipient.

PERFORMANCE

- Virtual Concerts sponsored by Charleston County Public Library 2020
- Metamorphosis live album, funded by Office of Cultural Affairs and National Endowment of the Arts 2020
- Principal Clarinet, North Charleston POPS!
- Piccolo Spoleto, including spotlight concerts 2015-2019
- Influence of Benny Goodman summer tours, California 2015-2019

"I seek to inspire, guide and support each student in finding their own unique path in music making." For Philip Lipton's full teaching philosophy, please visit his website: <https://philiplipton.com/teaching-philosophy>